October 1, 1962.

Mr. James Meredith,
University of Mississippi,
Oxford, Miss.

Dear Mr. Meredith,

Many white people here in Canada feel as I do, that you have shown amazing courage and dignity. We are with you all the way and are totally ashamed and confused by what has happened.

I think that most Canadians don't realize the bigotry that exists against coloured people since we have so little of it here. Little Rock taught them a lesson and the University of Mississippi has taught them another.

Wishing you all possible luck although I realize that it is not luck perhaps that is needed.

Yours faithfully,

Susan Blaylock
